DESIRABLE LOCATION SELECTED.

The Y. M. C. A. Building Will Be Opposite the Postoffice.

A DESIRABLE LOCATION.

The Price Was $2,300 And the Lot Is 46 By 94
Feet.

The Directory of the Y. M. C. A. held a business session Friday night and closed a trade for the Overshiner lot, next to the Cumberland Telephone office on Ninth street.
The price was $2,300 for a lot 46 by 94 feet. The corner lot in the Hill property on Main street was offered for $3,000, a larger and deeper lot, and the Frankel lot on Ninth street, West of the First National Bank, was to be had at about the same price. In buying the smaller lot, the Directors thought it better to put the additional money in the building and its furnishings. It is understood that the Overshiner brothers will give $200 off the purchase price of the lot.

The location is a very desirable and central one and will give general satisfaction. The plans for the building are now being matured, and the work will begin in the spring.

FARMERS THOROUGHLY AROUSED.

Large and Enthusiastic Meeting at Pembroke Saturday.

STIRRING SPEECHES.

A Few Share Crops Are Being Sold at Old Time Prices.

The meeting of the Tobacco Growers at Pembroke Saturday was largely attended and much enthusiasm was manifested. The farmers are thoroughly aroused and in dead earnest in the fight, that now seems virtually won.

Many new members were enrolled and from 500,000 to 800,000 pounds of additional tobacco was pledged to the movement.

The meeting was addressed by Col. Felix G. Ewing, Mr. John E.
Garner and Mr. John B. Allen, all of whom made stirring speeches and created great enthusiasm.

The Trust is bound to have the tobacco and the farmers already see what organization will do. One of the speakers said:

"The combine set out with an understanding to pay 4 and 2, and 5 and 2 for best crops. Now, when they find they can't buy it for that they realize that they can pay 8 cents, the farmers' price; for best called to meet at the Court House in Hopkinsville, Ky., on Thursday, Dec. 29, 1904, at 10:30 a. m.

Col. F. G. Ewing, President of the Association, Mr. John E. Garner, Mr. John B. Allen, and others, will be present and address the meeting and explain the objects and purposes of the Association and what it has already accomplished. Every farmer and every one interested in the better price of tobacco in Christian and adjoining counties is urged to be present, and we earnestly ask all such to stand together and not to sell or dispose of their tobacco until they come and hear and understand what has been accomplished by the union of the farmers, as expressed through this Association. The aim of this Association is not to force the buyers to pay an exorbitant price, but to obtain a just and living price for our tobacco, which we can surely do if we stand together.
Nearly every county in the Dark Tobacco District is better organized than Christian. Let us not be behind our neighbors. Come and urge your neighbors to come.

E. D. JONES,
Chairman Christian County.

Among the farmers reported to have sold at prices much higher than last year are the following:

Dr. John P. Bell, Longview, $6 round; sold last year at $4.97; sold 100,000 lbs.

Mr. John C. Willis, Pembroke, $7 round; $6 last year.

Mr. H. W. Boxley sold 15,000 lbs.
at $6; sold for $5 last year.

Mr. Crenshaw sold 20,000 lbs. at $6.

J. F. Garnett, Casky; T. W. Garnett, Casky, and J. W. Lander, Church Hill, have also sold at $6, about $1.00 to $1.50 more than they got last year. If these outsiders are benefitted to this extent, those who go into the organization and help to make it a success may expect to get still more.

The plan of the Trust, of course, is to buy enough for immediate demands, here and there over, the entire district, and then try a freeze-out on the members of the organization. But fortunately the great German market wants the same type of tobacco and by prying and shipping the farmers can reach a competitive market as they could before the warehousemen were forced out of business by the Trust.

Dr. Bell, who sold his large crop, says he was forced to close out his year's business with share hands to whom he had advanced supplies and whose crops he could not sign. He has made new contacts under which he will control the crops next year and says he will join the organization at once. The other farmers who sold probably had similar complaints and are really in hearty accord with the movement.

ers of Christian County:

Tobacco Protective Association is

Passes Away From a Stroke of Paralysis.

Mrs. Nancy L. Stevenson died at her home in this city Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, of a stroke of paralysis. She was stricken Friday and never rallied. Her maiden name was Lander and she was a sister of Mrs. Pauline G. Lander. Three daughters survive her, Miss Bettie Stevenson, Mrs. A. J. Reeder and Mrs. R. D. Reeder. Her two sons died years ago. One of them was a Union soldier and died while in the army.

Mrs. Stevenson was 76 years of age and had been in good health until prostrated with the stroke that caused her death. She had long been a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

Her funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the residence, by Rev. J. L. Wyatt, her pastor, and the interment took place at Hopewell Cemetery.

A Former Christian County Woman Dies in Clarksville.

The wife of Mr. Geo. S. Gilbert, a Clarksville attorney, died Wednesday. Mrs. Gilbert was formerly Miss Louisa Lowry, daughter of Mr. S. J. Lowry, of near Garrettsburg, this county, and was about thirty years old. She had not enjoyed good health for several months, but the immediate cause of death was pneumonia.

She was married to Mr. Gilbert about eight years ago, and is survived by a husband and one child, a little daughter.

Deceased was a member of the Baptist church, a good woman, and her demise causes sincere regret among a host of friends. The interment took place in Greenwood cemetery, Clarksville.

Coughing Spell caused Death

"Harry Duckwell, aged 35 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec 1, 1901. Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

THOUSANDS OF "TURKS"

Being Shipped to Northern Cities from Hopkinsville.

Thousands of turkeys are being shipped to the northern markets this season from Hopkinsville. Shipments are increasing with each day and will continue until sometime after the holidays.

G. W. Wiley & Co., the 9th street dealers, shipped 780 turkeys to the market Wednesday. This number represents their purchases for Monday and Tuesday. They will have another lot ready in a day or two, as they are buying the birds in large lots. This is "turkey time," however, and this much esteemed bird is now the specialty with poultry dealers. Good prices are being paid here by Wiley & Co., and the sale of Christian county turkeys will foot up a big sum.

"I was much afflicted with sciatica," writes Ed C. Nud, Iowa ville, Sedgewick county, Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons; all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

The Rev. John W. Lewis, D. D., who was formerly presiding elder of the Louisville district of the M. E. church, south, has been made presiding elder of the East Nashville district of the Tennessee conference. He has for the past year been the presiding elder of the Jackson (Miss.) district.

OFFERED THOUSAND WIVES.

Strange Experience of Explorer Paul Du Chaillu in Wilds of Africa.

During one of his lecture tours through this country, the late Paul Du Chaillu told an amusing anecdote of one of his first trips into Africa. He had been staying for some time among a tribe on the west coast, and one day he asked the king for an escort to the chief, who had a city of a tribe farther inland. The king, who had taken a great liking to Chaillu, protested and tried to induce him to stay there and become a member of his tribe, but to no purpose; Du Chaillu was determined to go farther into the interior.

The king, who was a much married man, having more than a hundred wives, thought that if he could get Du Chaillu married to one of the maidens of his village he could keep him there without any difficulty. So he had all the maidens, of whom there were about a thousand, lined up in front of the explorer and told him to choose a wife that suited him. For a moment Du Chaillu was in a quandary as to how to get out of the difficulty without making an enemy of the king, but suddenly a happy thought struck him and he believed he had found a way out of the scrape, so turning to the king he said:

"They are beautiful maidens, but if I should choose one the others would all be jealous."

"True," replied the king, and then after a moment's thought, "take them all, take them all."

QUALITIES OF ASBESTOS.

Less Brittle Than Slate, More Adaptable and Equally Fire-proof.

The absolute incombustibility of asbestos renders it exceedingly useful for many purposes, despite its cost, says the New York Tribune. The mineral, being fibrous, can be spun and woven—that is, the best grades can—into a cloth which is suitable for theater curtains. When ground and combined with other materials, it can be wrought into an admirable substitute for wood. Such preparations, of which several are in the market, are light and tough. Nails can be driven through the compound without splitting it. Often the product is hard enough to ring like a piece of walnut. Either in large sheets or in small sections which overlap, it makes an admirable covering for roofs. It is less brittle than slate and equally fireproof.

Asbestos is such an excellent non-conductor of heat that it is often employed as a wrapping for steam pipes, where it serves a double purpose. It diminishes the loss from radiation, and prevents the ignition of adjacent wood-work. The German navy department has used a considerable quantity for lining bulkheads and lockers. It is an economical material for insulating cold stores.

BIT OF AMERICAN HUMOR.

Given as a Specimen of the Facetiousness Which Is Characteristic of Yankees.

Lance Thackeray and Tom Browne, the English illustrators, dined recently with Richard Canfield, of New York, relates the Tribune.

The young men said they were anxious to obtain specimens of characteristic Yankee humor, as they hoped to write a funny book about America on their return home.

"Well," said Mr. Canfield, "the only item I can give you for your book is a letter that a friend of mine in Anaconda wrote to a newspaper. Anaconda is a western town, and my friend is a miner there. His letter contradicted an obituary about himself that the newspaper had printed. It ran like this:

"Sir: I desire to call your attention to a few errors in your obituary of myself of Wednesday last. I was born in Washington, not in Wheeling, and my retirement from the floor and feed business in '96 was not due to ill health, but to hard times. The cause of my death was not pneumonia."

HE WANTS TO FLY.

Says His Airship is Certainly a Success.

The Earnshaw Aerial Navigation Company, of Jackson, Tenn., has authorized F. W. Earnshaw, the inventor, to construct within 90 days a model of his flying machine. It will be so built that with a small additional motor two persons can be carried. Mr. Earnshaw built a flying machine some years ago in Atlanta and while testing it the model escaped and Mr. Earnshaw has never heard of it since. He claims that he has solved the question of flying through the air and he has inspired confidence enough among business men at Jackson to receive funds for carrying out his idea.

The School Board of Paducah voted to allow the teachers full pay during the holiday vacation to the amount of $1,000. Dr. J. R. Coleman, President of the Board, says he will not sign the warrants until ordered by the court to do so, hold that the school teachers are required by law to teach 190 school days and the money in his hands is to pay for this actual work. The News-Democrat editorially backs up the position taken by Dr. Coleman.

Cured Paralysis.

W. S. Bailey, P. O. True, Texas, writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for sores, frostbites and skin eruptions. It does the work." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by R. C. Hardwick.

Hammond, Ind., is entitled to go up head in the fool class. The town council has not only passed an antispitting ordinance, but will locate public espionadors on every corner and fine every spitter who misses the mark. Of course the man who has trained himself to down flies will have a decided advantage, when the populace gathers around to spit.

To Whom It May Concern:
This is to certify that I have inspected the Hopkinsville Steam Laundry and find that all possible precautions are being taken to prevent the spread of all infectious diseases.

We do not use the same water for two or three washings as some do.
We change water for each washing and it passes several times through clean, fresh water. It would be well for people having washing done elsewhere to bear this in mind.

SMALLPOX ABATING.

Another Big Batch of Patients Released Yesterday.

The smallpox scare in Christian county is over. The cases in the county hospitals have been reduced to 44 at Concord and 15 at Gracey.
The few cases at Cedar Grove are all about well except Maxey Blythe and a railroad man from Gracey who was brought up Saturday with vari-ol. The Gracey hospital can be closed this week and the others almost emptied.

The situation in Trigg is growing worse. Dr. Backus, of Gracey, telephoned yesterday that there were new cases in his Trigg county practice in one family of negroes.

Two deaths occurred below Newstead last week. One was a negro man named Alex Blair on the Bacon place and the other was Alex Downs, on the Tuggle place. Several other cases are reported in that vicinity.

DOG AND BADGER CHUMS.

Natural Enemies Played Together in a Very Entertaining Manner.

Did you know that many animals like to play and romp just as little boys and girls do? You have all seen the monkeys at the Zoo and how they torment and chase one another, says the Philadelphia Ledger, but did you know, also, that even the birds and animals like the badger and weasel like to frolic?

A well-known German named Beckman had a pet badger and a dog who used to have great sport together. "They used to have a series of gymnastic performances," he writes, "on every pleasant afternoon, and their four-footed friends came from far and near to witness the performance. The game was that the badger, roaring and shaking his head like a wild boar, should charge upon the dog and strike him in the side with his head; the dog, leaping determinedly entirely over the badger, awaited a second and third attack, and then made the badger chase him all around the garden."
"If the badger managed to snap the dog's hindquarters they would have an angry tussle, but never a real fight."

Dogs and cats very often have games with their masters, too, as you know. There is a dog in this city that plays at "hide and seek" with his mistress by the hour, although she is always the one to hide.

The dog waits until she hides and calls, then he chases all over the house looking for her. He has not a keen scent, so it is a case of "seek till you find." When at last he discovers her hiding place he jumps and barks and wags his tail as much as to say: "My, but I'm a bright dog to find my mistress."

The latter can never hide in the same place twice, however, for the dog invariably looks in every place in which she has hidden before.

RED LIQUOR.

Steamers Will Carry a Lot of it Up the Tennessee.

Paducah, Ky., Dec. 15.—The Tennessee river will not be too low for the annual "jug boat," which makes a trip up the Tennessee river just before Christmas each year. This year, owing to the increased demand, there will be two boats to carry the "over joyful."

The "jug boat" that goes out first this year is the Clyde. She will leave Paducah on the afternoon of Dec.
21, and the Tennessee will take out the final consignment on the afternoon of Dec. 24, carrying principally jugs for towns that will be reached in time for Christmas.

MEN ARE GROWING TALLER.

Athletes of Medieval Times Were Puny Compared with the Strong Men of To-Day.

A walk through the Tower of London will convince any person that the armored knights of medieval days were puny men compared with the athlete of to-day, says the London Express.

The experiment of getting into the suits of old armor in country houses has often proved that the "legs" are far too short for the average man of the present generation.

A well-known anthropologist at the British museum says that undoubtedly the British race is taller than it was several hundred years ago.

"I think, however, that the medieval man was deeper chested and broader in the shoulders," he said.

"The old armor, if a man of good average height could squeeze into it to-day, would be found loose fitting in the shoulders and at the chest."

The tallest men in the world come from Galloway and Perthshire, and Yorkshire's average is the one. Even that of southwest England and South Wales—five feet six inches—is far higher than that of many of the continental nations.

"The tallest men after the men of Galloway, who have an average of nearly six feet, are the Fulahs of the French Sudan, and the Patagonians are believed to hold a very good average."

In London the average is as low as in South Wales, and the little man frequently asks why he should have to pay the same price for a suit of clothes as a country bred giant.

This question was answered by a West end tailor. "What we make by the little man we lose on the big man," he said; "for we pay our men extra when they are working on a giant's suit."

"We have been compelled on one or two occasions, however, to charge more when a man is exceptionally tall or stout. One of our customers, who is over six feet high and is 44 inches around the chest and 47 inches round the waist, takes five and a half double yards for a lounge suit. We ask another guinea, and he pays it readily."

CONJUGALITY OF BIRDS.

The Devotion of Some Species to One Another Is Something Extraordinary.

The wagtail frequently migrates from one part of the country to another, and sometimes migrates in flocks, but he pairs for life, and the same pair always reappear, sometimes when they are least expected, and all the more welcome from their occasional absence, on their favorite lawn. Their devotion to one another is extreme, writes R. Bosworth Smith, in the Nineteenth Century, as a scene I witnessed some 40 years ago, but which is as fresh in my memory as if I had seen it yesterday, will show.

A wagtail had been killed, probably by a stone, and was lying dead in the middle of the circular drive in front of the Down house, Blandford. The survivor seemed beside himself with grief. Like Eve in "Paradise," he "knew not what death was," or, at most, the reality was only gradually breaking in upon him. He kept running up to the body with loud and plaintive call note. He called, but there was no response. He ransacked the body, caught hold of it with his little bill, coaxed it to move, drew it after him for a yard or two. He even tried to rise with it in the air. Then, like one distraught, he dashed away to the edge of the gravel drive, and then, as quickly, dashed back again, to go through the same mournful processes.

Sometimes he would fly right off in wavering, uncertain flight as far as the eye could follow him, as though he could bear the sight no longer, but, without stopping to rest, he hurried back in a straighter and quicker flight, unable to tear himself away, or as if he hoped that something might have happened in his absence. This long-drawn tragedy, this abandonment of grief, I watched from the window, throughout the afternoon till darkness came on. Next morning the body had disappeared and I saw the survivor no more.

OBSTINATE CASES

Of hemorrhoids, excessive flowing, painful periods, prostrates, or falling of womb, attended by weak back, bearing-down sensations, ulceration of womb, pain and tenderness of ovaries, are almost always cured by a fairly persistent use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If in any case it should, in due time, not seem quite adequate to meet every phase of some complicated case, Dr. Pierce always stands ready to offer valuable suggestions based upon years of varied experience which often proves of inestimable value. This he does entirely free of charge to those using his medicines. Address Dr. J. C. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. J. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
"I am 50—once thought I should never enjoy good health again. What I suffered with womb disease was not expressible in words. Headaches, pain, painful monthly sickness, backache, constipation, cold hands and feet at all times. Was all run-down and there was nothing left of me but a 'compromised' system. I bought Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and was entirely cured. I always keep the bottles on hand now, and recommend them to all my friends."
—Mrs. J. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

There is no opium, cocaine or other narcotic in "Favorite Prescription." Neither does it contain alcohol, whiskey or other intoxicant.

It often happens that childlessness is due to conditions which may be corrected. Many women have found that the vitality and vigor imparted by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to the womanly organs, has been the one thing needed to fulfill the joy of motherhood. This famous medicine is not a cure-all.

One little "Pill" is a laxative, two are cathartic. They regulate, invigorate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

Persons subject to any of these troubles should not be without a vial of the "Pleasant Pellets" at hand. They are always adopted as a household remedy after the first trial. Put up in glass vials, tightly corked, therefore always fresh and reliable.

One little "Pill" is a laxative, two are cathartic. They regulate, invigorate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

THEY NEVER FAIL.

That is What They Say About Them in Hopkinsville, and it is Therefore Reliable.

Another proof, some more evidence, Hopkinsville testimony to the long list of advocates who endorse the old Quaker Remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this convincing endorsement of the claims made for that remarkable preparation:

M. W. Davis, of Endes & Davis, dealers in coal on East Seventh St., at the E. & N. R. R., and who live at 508 North Main street, says: "I advise the use of Doan's Kidney Pills in all cases similar to that of my son, who for some time complained of backache and was troubled with a kidney weakness which was very annoying at night. We tried many different remedies and he was treated by the family physician but nothing seemed to do him much good. I learned about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at Thomp-son & Tatham's drug store. He used them and there was a noticeable improvement in a short time. After he had taken all of the contents of that which had proven such an annoyance was entirely relieved. We consider Doan's Kidney Pills certainly worthy of strong endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York; sole agents for the United States.

The Delineator For January.

With a most attractive cover and a varied list of contests, including the latest news of the fashions and literary and domestic features of the greatest interest, The Delineator for January is an altogether excellent number. The regular fashion display is supplemented by a strikingly illustrated article on "The Stage as a School of Costume," showing the close relations that exist between the theatre and the world of style. Herbert D. Ward and Seumas MacManus contribute stories of rare charm and under the pseudonym "Marie Columbia" a very clever writer describes the "smart set" in Washington society. "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" is the first paper in a series, by Adah Sutherland, giving the history and romance of the famous hymns of the world, and in the "Composite Series" the love story of Mendelssohn and Cecile is related by Gustav Kobbe. For children there is a wealth of interesting matter, the names of L. Frank Baum and Grace McGowan Cooke being prominent among the contributors. Among the domestic topics, in addition to the regular features, is the first paper of "The Making of a Housewife," by Isabel Gordon Curtis. A new department, "Good Looks," supplements a series along similar lines that appeared during the past year.

The Blind May See.

Dr. D. Garfield's Eye Remedy cured hundreds in Tennessee who were nearly blind with sore eyes, granulated eyelids, watering, itching, burning, inflamed eyes and wild hair. Many had scums or pterygia on their eyes could not see their way were given up by doctors as incurable after paying out hundreds of dollars. Call or write for free sample, and you will be convinced that you can be cured. No matter how severe your case be, not of how long standing address Dr. D. NO COURTSHIP IN FRANCE.

Lovers Are Not Permitted the Liberties That They Are in This Country.

The word "courtship" has no equivalent in the French tongue, because the thing itself does not exist. Stolen kisses, even furtive kisses, may, of course, be indulged in, but only under a modulated chaperonage, the half-shut eye of parents or guardians. No young French lady would be permitted, for instance, to undertake a cycling expedition with her future husband. Still less could she take train with him for the purpose of visiting relations in the country, were the journey of half an hour's duration only. Lovemaking begins with the honeymoon, says the Cornhill Magazine.

For centuries, alike in the humblest as well as the highest ranks, matrimonial settlements have kept family possessions together in France—and enriched village notaries!

No sooner was serfdom abolished than the peasants followed bourgeois example, dowering their daughters and securing the interest of their sons by law. In provincial archives exist many of these documents, the rustic hide's portion consisting of furniture, clothes, money, and sometimes cattle or a bit of land. The archives of the Aube contain the marriage contract of a skilled day laborer (manouvrier) and a widow whose property was double that of his own. The deed secured him joint enjoyment and ownership. I cannot here, of course, enter into the intricacies of the French marriage laws. There is the regime dotal, which safeguards the dowry of the wife; there is the regime de la communauté, which makes wedlock strictly a partnership as far as income and earnings are concerned. And there are minute regulations as to the provision for children and widows. The latter are always sacrificed to the former.

FREAKS OF DYNAMITE FORCE.

One Was the Embedding of an Oak Leaf in a Block of Metal.

Two interesting exhibits of force of dynamite are shown in the museum of the Stephens institute of technology, in Hoboken. They are steel blocks, six inches in diameter and four inches thick, showing respectively the impression of an oak leaf and the imprint of a headline of a western newspaper.

It was during a test of high explosives, says the New York World, that a cartridge of dynamite was placed on a newspaper covering the block of steel, the object being to see how much dynamite would be required to split the metal. The dynamite was fired without injury to the steel; but to the surprise of the experimenter the print of the newspaper was deeply pressed onto the metal.

The experiment was repeated, with the same result, and then was elaborated by trying the charge on an oak leaf placed between the block and the dynamite. This time the stem and the ribs of the leaf were deeply impressed in the metal.

"What happened is this," said the expert in charge. "Unlike most other explosives, dynamite exerts practically all its crushing force downward, and not in a general direction. So inconceivably quick and forceful is the discharge of this powder that the imprint of the ribs of an oak leaf are made before the leaf has had time to be blown to atoms. In the case of the newspaper it appears that where printers' ink touches the paper the paper is hardened and more capable of resistance than in other places, and so it is that before the paper is destroyed the printing on it is forced deep into the metal."
